

several hundred pounds of black powder at Nevada Consolidated mine. Bodies blown to fragments.

Ossining, N. Y.—George Williams, negro; Guiseppi Carielli and Santa Zanzara electrocuted in Sing Sing prison.

St. Johns, N. F.—Whale rammed steamer Empire. Crew of 60 and passengers forced to take to life boats.

Rhinebeck, N. Y.—Vincent Astor is real popular here now. Gave village new baseball park.

Boston, Mass.—Gov. Foss has set record for number of pardons he has granted prisoners. 77 pardoned first year and 55 so far this year.

St. Petersburg.—60 persons burned to death in fire at sugar factory near Lipex.

Cleveland, O.—Robert Thibodeau, 18, balloonist, drowned in Fairmont reservoir, when parachute cut adrift 1,000 feet in air.

St. Paul, Minn.—16 persons were drowned in various parts of northwest Sunday while seeking relief in water from heat.

Geneva, Switzerland.—Emile Fischer, young mechanic and ardent socialist, has inherited $130,000 from estate of New York uncle.

Maysville, Ky.—S. E. Pollitt, Minerva, Ky., deaf for several years, sneezed so violently he restored hearing.

Arcola, Ill.—John H. Seltz, farmer, kicked so badly by pony that he died.

New York.—Joseph Dragon, deaf mute, arrested for prize fight, nearly overcome by gas when prisoner in adjoining cell attempted suicide by gas. Unable to call for help. Smashed cot against cell door.

Edwardsville, Ill.—Hida May, daughter of Otto May, Marine, Ill., drowned herself in well at home.

Los Angeles.—Mayor Harrison and many Chicago business men, lawyers, ministers and others have sent letters of high personal regard to Clarence Darrow.

San Francisco.—Police aided "Goodfellows' club" and arrested several wealthy members when they found cock fight in progress.

Washington.—Sen. Dillingham will continue defense of Lorimer. Sen. Borah will speak against Illinois senator when Dillingham gets through.

New York.—Rev. Edward F. Harrigan, St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, Long Island City, denounced young lady turkey trotters from pulpit. Said they ought to get long terms.

London.—Joseph Chamberlain is 76 today. Tariff Reform League is taking collection to be presented to him to carry on work of tariff reform and imperial preference.

London.—Movement started for memorial to Wm. T. Stead, writer and journalist, who died in Titanic wreck.

London.—Azalea Keyes, San Francisco, will marry Count Lowenhaupt, grandson of Sir Audrey Goadling.

New York.—Charles J. Bonaparte, former attorney general in Roosevelt campaign, said he